

I believe that additional charges on cell phones are wrong. Monthly bills are roughly 20% higher due to added on costs, such as those the cellular phone provider tacks on to normal fees the government allows. These fees should not be allowed and should be included in the normal monthly charges stated in advertising the rate plan.